margarine.

25—Common Councils battle over the question of wooden buildings, and the ordinance is defeated. Allegheny members of the Jr. O. U. A. M. decide to endow a room in the General Hospital.

27—Mayor McCallin signs the ordinance compro-

7-Mayor McCallin signs the ordinance compromising the Lowry royalty difficulty for $5,00. Adoinh Riedel agus the Southside Turner Society for $16,000 for alleged blacklisting. The Bellevue and Northside natural gas companies bought by Messrs, Pittock & Mueller.

8-County Assessors express a determination to list real estate at its cash value. Southside manufacturers consider the advisability of forming a natural gas company to supply their own fuel.

9-Thanksgiving Day observed throughout the city, Jr. O. U. A. M. members present American flags to the public schools with impressive can flags to the public schools with impressive ceremonies.

Typhoid fever almost epidemic at Braddock.
Property owners along Penn avenue, between Point Breeze and the city line, hold a meeting and ask for asphalt pavements. Deputy United States Marshal Chambers arrests several al-

Thomas Maxwell, the plaintiff in the suit states and base the process of the present of the pres

A Large Number of Respected Local Residents Among These

WHO OBEY THE IMPERATIVE SUMMONS

Death has knocked at many a door during the past year, and stricken down many a shining mark. Two Emperors of Germany and one beloved General of the United States army are among those who have passed away.

JANUARY. 1-Duchess of Saxe-Meininger, at Berlin, Germany. 2-John Peffer, wealthy nonagenarian, at Carlisle, Pa.

3-Benjamin Latshaw Fahnesstock, one of Pitta-burg's earliest glass makers, at Homewood. General F. B. Alexander, of St. Paul, at Wash-ington, Mrs. Sarah Brinton McConkey, at West Chester, Pa.

4-Dr. John W. Kerr, at his home, 67 Arch street, Allegheny. Allegheny.
5-Patrick Horn, at 22 Tunnel street, aged 75 years. William N. Hwin, 227 Steuben street, Pitisburg.
6-Mrs. Jeremiah Porter, the first school teacher of Chicago, at Santa Barbara, Cal. Robert Nirson, Sr., in Chartiers' township, aged 93 years.

Nirson, Sr., in Chartiers' township, aged by years.

7-Charles Kuapp, an old-time Pittsburg manufacturer, at Washington, D. C. Mra, Emily Elliott, at New Castle, aged 64 years, 8-J. S. Strickler, Negley avenue and Ripley street, East End. John Fife Johnston, at 435 Liberty street. Mrs. James M. McKee, of Somers street, Pittsburg. Jacob J. Ross, at Freedom, aged 78 years.

9-David Boden, Lincoln avenue, Allegheny, aged 53 years.

9-David Boden, Lincoln avenue, Allegheny, aged 33 years.

10-James McDermott, the oldest printer in the country, and a veteran of the War of 1812, dies at Washington, Pa. William J. Sturgeon, at Phisadelphis. William B. Gallaher, Lacock street, Allegheny, Gottlieb Wettoch, No. 69 Taylor avenue, Allegheny.

11-C. A. Black, at Turtle Creek, Pa. Mrs. Mary E. Davis, at 49 Anderson street, Allegheny. Elijah B. Begister, at Philadelphia, aged 99 years.

12-Colin M. Reed. prominent citizen at Washington, Pa., aged 59 years.

13-John A. Weisse, eminent physiologist and author, at New York, aged 77. Samuel Galbraith, Jones avenue, aged 62 years. Charles Lungenfelter, at Hoboken, Pa. 14-George E. Slocum, prominent Odd Fellow, Sidney and Nfneteenth streets, Southside.

15-John Kolb, prominent citizen of Cumberland, Md. Albert Speidle, at Braddock. Bishop Wm. H. Hickelooper, at Salt Lake City, aged 39 years. James T. Bovard, Boggs avenue, Mt. Washington.

16-Wm. W. Evans, Second avenue, aged 67 years. William M. Boyle, Thirteth and Smallman streets.

18-Louis Haas, a former resident of Allegheny, at

Wm. Langkamp, Sr., aged 79 years.
17—Thomas Cain. Second avenue, aged 78 years.
William M. Boyle, Thirtieth and Smallman streets.
18—Louis Haas, a former resident of Allegheny, at San Francisco, Cal. Oscar B. Ford, former law pariner of Thomas A. Hendricks. at Indianapolis. Martin Benzing. 38 Second street, Allegheny.
19—Mrs. Maria Moore Laughlin, Beaver avenue and Franklin street, Allegheny., aged 74 years.
Miss Nataile Shanks, well-known vocalist, residing on Forty-fourth street.
20—Rev. Robert Lloyd Gouldsborough, at New Brunswick, N. J. James Bingham, corner of Thirty-first and Smallman streets.
21—James Lincoln, portrait painter, at Providence, R. I. Stephen Nash, at Linden station. Grandma Garfield, at Mentor.
22—Judge C. Anson Jones, prominent citizen and old-time resident of Texas. Mrs. Margaret Redman, at Crafton, aged 72 years.
23—Beishazzar Roth, well-known hotel proprietor, at Cincinnati. Mrs. Barbara Kelso Murdoch, Thirty-third street, aged 19 years.
24—Prof. Nathaniel Sheppard, of Saratoga Springs, at New York City. Robert J. Aylward, 49 Roberts street.
25—William H. Michaels, a veteran soldier of the Southside. P. H. Well, Chancellor of the University of Georgia, at Athens, Ga. Mrs. Elizabeth Young, 66 Wylie avenue.
25—William H. Michaels, a veteran soldier of the Southside. P. H. Well, Chancellor of the University of Georgia, at Athens, Ga. Mrs. Elizabeth Young, 66 Wylie avenue.
25—William H. Michaels, a veteran soldier of the Southside. P. H. Well, Chancellor of Penn township, aged 71 years.
28—William T. Littell, of 61 Twenty-first street, Pittsburg. Bishop of Racine. at Chicontime, Quebec.
30—Thomas Anderson, Scott township, aged 39 years. George Brown, 112 Washington street, Allegheny.
31—John R. McCune, President of the First National Bark, at his home on Fifth avenue. Daniel Dougherty, Keating station.

FEBRUARY.

I-Cyrus S. Oberly, well-known journalist, at Houston, Tex. James Eapy McCormick, Scott township. N. W. Knox, at Dreaden.

-Mrs. John Myers, Second and East streets, Allegheny, Louis Horning, well-known resident of the Southside.

-William W. Ford. 15 Pine street, Allegheny, aged 70 years. Joseph Hall, Beaver, Pa., aged 81 years. Frank J. Hall, at Monongaheia City.

-L. K. Chapman, at Springboro, Pa., aged 74 years. George H. Rupp, 134 Second avenue. Valentine Stock, at Butler, Pa.

-Henry Charles, Eleventh ward. Allegheny, aged 71 years. Samuel P. Hollis, Lower St. Clair township. Fridolin Wade, 8t. Oliver.

-John H. Anglioch. 67 Carson street. Wm. Lloyd. 44 Ohlo avenue, Allegheny.

7-John Bodifer, pioneer manufacturer, at Belaire, O. John Messert, of Shaler township.

8-D. B. Benson, of Titusville, in New York City.

9-Matthew Matthews, at New Castle. Jacob Wilbert, 177 Belondan street, Mt. Washington. Miss Ella B. Stien, of Chartiers borough. John Owens, No. 21 Second avenue, aged 84 years.

10-Patrick Fay, Sr., 1538 Second avenue. William Hill, 155 Franklin street, Allegheny.

12-William McLaughlin, 114 Webster avenue, aged 82 years. Mrs. Thomas Farrell, at Elizabeth. Charles H. Tallman, wealthy manufacturer. of Wheeling. John T. Holmes, at Beaver Falls, aged 61 years.

13-Colonel Frank M. Tracy, at Troy, Kan. Mrs. Eliza M. Axtell, East End. Timothy Maloney, 188 Forgy-third street.

14-Colond Duncan B. McRae, at New York City. Joseph R. Jones, 218 Federal street. James Weish. Filty-afith and Butler streets. Mrs. Barbars Whitmyre, Oakland avenue, aged 80 years. Mrs. Hondon, 218 Ridge avenue, Allegheny.

15-John Kelley, 12 Forty-afith street. George W. Danoe, Union City, Hon. John B. Seidel, at Lebanon.

17-Daniel Ahl. Sr., at Red Bank, aged 85 years. Mrs. Mary Clement Garrison, 218 Ridge avenue, Allegheny. Henry Kormman, at Chicago, Ill.

20-Joseph R. Donnelly, 64 Ann street, Allegheny. Henry Kormman, at Chicago. Ill.

20-Joseph R. Donnelly, 64 Ann street, Allegheny. John Mauch, Mt. Oliver.

24-Jud FEBRUARY.

Set rough and Christ Channel. The fact Library is a proposal set of the control o Ps. John Henry Dittman, 36% Penn avenue. Daniel Rvan, 16 Scho street.

David McGraw, formerly of Allegheny, at Chicago. Moses H. Haddock, No. 33 Austin street. D. N. White, Sewickley, aged 33 years. Andrew C. Patterson, 38 Crawford street. street.

3-Mrs. Mary E. McMillan, Enon Valley, Pa. Thomas Collins, Sr., Harrison street, aged 31 years. George Hite, 507 Chestnut street, Southside, Colonel Andrew Scott, Shetland avenue, East End.

4-Leander Stone, well-known newspaper man, at Chicago. Mrs. Katherine Luiz, Sharptburg, Samuel James McGuire, Ottawa, Iowa.

6-Wm. Sheldon Newell, Youngstown, O., aged 39 years, James Farrill, 320 Fith avenue, Harrison P. Reynolds, Allegheny, aged 70 years. John S. Willock, 44 Becch street, Alleghene. MANY OF THE WORLD'S NOTED ONES

legheny.

S. George N. Mans, at Eric, Pa. Patrick Langdon, Sycamore street, Mt. Washington, M. S. Meilons, Believue borough, Robert Watson, Perryville avenue, Allegheny, aged 75 years.

9-Samuel Blerman, Fifth avenue and High street.
Dr. James A. Reed, New York. John Eastland, Sharpsburg.
10-Marshall Falek, Davis avenue, Allegheny, aged 60 years. Adolph Unverzagt, 146 Forty-first street

Sircet.

11-John Wagner, Charles street, Knoxville, Daniel Neeman, Forth-seventh and Center streets, aged 70 years. Mrs. Margaret L. Lawson, Broad street, East End.

12-Robert McBride, at 48 Maple avenue.

13-Charles McGowan, 44 Bedford avenue, George
Booth, Idlewood. Mrs. Ann M. Walker, 35
Gum street, aged 75 years.

14-Charles Liewellyn, 135 Steuben street, West End. Mrs. Margaret Carr, No. 49 Monterey street. Allegheny, aged 70 years, 15-Thomas T. Richards, 1268 Virgin street, Southside. Mrs. Margaret L. Harris, of Allegheny, in New York City. Peter Pollott, Siglestreet, Allegheny. in New York City. Peter Pollots, Sigle street, Allegheny.

-Livingston R. Labagh. Fulton and Falkner streets, Allegheny. Mrs. Mary Evans, 420 Blingham street, Southside, aged 77 years.

-Ex-Senator Roscoe Conkling, at the Hoffman House, New York City. Edward M. Biddle, Carlisle, Pa. Dr. Cornellus M. Agnew, New York. Isaac Ward Andrew, D. D., Marietts, O. J. E. S. Hassard, Journalist, New York City.

York Isaac Ward Andrew, D. D., Marietta, O. J. E. S. Hassard, journalist, New York City.

19—A. S. Abell, founder of the Sun, Baltimore, Md. Major W. L. Dewart, at Sunbury. Henry L. Boliman an old Pittsburg manufacturer, at Spartansburg, S. C.

20—August C. E. Mueller, of Allegheny, at Monongaheia City, Abner P. Lacock, Freedom, aged 75 years.

21—Christian H. Clark, at Bochester, Pa. John A. Rice, Chicago, Ill. Simon Cassaday, Findlay, O. Thomas Jefferson, Cunningham, McKeesport, Joshua Sheldrake Beaver, Hon. Thomas White, Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, Ont. Mrs. James McFarlane, Towanda.

22—General William Dwight, Boston, Mass. Admiral Charles Stewart Bogg, New Brunswick, N. J. Colonel John A. Graham, Washington, D. C. Mrs. Alfred Huidekoper, Meadville, Pa. John Coyle, the well-known attorney, No. 35 Edmond street. Mrs. James Blair Smith, New York City.

24—Mrs. Mary H. G. Maxwell, 250 Western aveaue, Allesheny, Judge J. T. McKibben, of Newport, Ky.

25—Allen Westley, at Findlay, O. Mrs. Johanna Miller, Lafayette street, Hazelwood, Schastian Sallada, Lemington avenue, aged 75 years.

25—Rufus P. Covert, New Brighton, Rev. J. A. J. Zann, Greenville, Edward Conroy, Hodge street.

27—Christian Inhoff, at Carlisle, Pa. John Chamstreet.
27-Christian Inhoff, at Carlisle, Pa. John Chamberlain, at Greensburg, Pa. E. B. Clark, Chicago. Clemence S. Lozier, New York City.
23-Mrs. Prudence P. Curran, 61 Congress street, William Semmelrock, 1702 Wharton street, White Southside.

Daniel Worley, at Canton, O. Mrs. George
W. Jones, Dubuque, lowa, James White,
4807 Butler street.

Alexander A. Stewart, Columbus. Albert F.
Bohrvis Cincinnatt. John Brown, No. 323
Charliers street, Allegheny.

MAY.

1-William McIlvaine, Washington, Pa. Mrs. Ellen A. Haslett, No. 7 Park way, Allegheny. 2-George H. Harsh, Des Moines, Iowa. John C. Wagner, McKeesport. Charles B. Fourd, Watt street.

3-Rev. George R. Hursh, Harrisburg. John Henry Hobart Brown, Fond du Lac, Wis. Francis M. Thayer, Indianapolis. Mrs. Martha W. Ferrer. New York. Mrs. Mary Sullivan, Butler, Pa. John R. Crese, Sewickley township. Peter Joice, Carson street, Southside, aged 75 years.

4-Charles Lyman at Washington. Hon. J. F. Kreps, McKeesport. Mrs. Jabob Shafer, Phillipsburg. Eva Gusky, Monongabels House. John Lindenfelser, Penn avenue.

5-Mrs. Maris Fellwood, No. 20 Fremont street, Allegheny. General Warner Lewis, Dubuque, Iowa. C.S. Muscrott, Cincinnati. Hon. J. M. Estep, Cadiz, O. Louis King, Etna.

6-William Khilinger, 115 Boyd street. Thomas Keenan, 50 Fayette street, Allegheny., Dr. Isaiah White, New Castle. Rev. Charles J. Clarke, New York City. Major N. Bostwick, Newark, O. -Danlei S. Thomas, Youngstown, O. Dr. Laurens. Newark, O.
7-Daniel S. Thomas, Youngstown, O. Dr. Laureng
P. Nickok, Amherst, Mass. W. C. Reed, Warren, O. Prof. Wm. A. Lawton, East End.
Samnel Murphy, Sr., 254 River avenue, Allogheny, aged 78 years.
1-Judge Williamson, New Castle. Dr. Chaunesy
L. Mitchell, New York City. Hon. James
Birney, Bay City, Mich. Scott R. McNabb, Sharon.

gheny, aged 78 years.

3-Judge Williamson, New Castle. Dr. Channesy
L. Mitchell, New York City. Hon. James
Birnoy, Bay City, Mich. Scott R. McNabb,
3-Parmoley Billings, at Chicago. William S.
Matthews, Youngstown. Saaman Fierce,
Corry, Nathaniel Waits, Baltimore. General
George Dibbrell, Chattanooga. Henry Kirkpatrick, Mahon avenue, aged 70 years.

10-Rev. James Drummond, D. D., at Cadiz, O.
John Barnd, Findiay, O. Joseph Lindsey, 29
Fourty-fourth street, aged 71 years. Mrs. D.
Strasburger, 249 Franklin street, Allegheny.

11-Prof. Felix De Lannoy, Chester, Pa. William Fitzgerald McKeesport. John George Bender, No. 57 Second avenue. Mrs. A. Kenwell,
No. 5 Chitton avenue. Allegheny.

12-George Amberson, Edge street, aged 62 years,
Mrs. Mary A. Watson, e35 Carson street.

13-Archbishop John J. Lynch, Toronto, Ont.
Caleb Cope, Philadelphia. J. C. Seiden, Erie,
W. W. Algeo, No. 9 Ackley street, Allegheny.
Mrs. Mary A. Watson, e35 Carson street.

14-Admiral Sir William Hewlit. at Portumouth,
England. John and Professional Street, Mrs. Phoebe
England. John Beng. Cal. Mrs. Phoebe
Travis, Travis Creek, Pa., aged 104 years.
William Stewart, 237 Pennsylvania avenue,
Allegheny City, John Henry Succop, 170
Wylle avenue.

15-Robert C. Schmertz, Fifth avenue and Craig street. Mrs. Mary E. Schiver, Penntownship,
72 years.

16-William N. West, at Meadville, Pa. J. B.
Wilder, at Louisville. Jarvis Patten, WashIngton, D. C. Joseph L. Gaches, Manhall station. Mrs. Catharine Staving, 122 Buena, Vista street, Allegheny, Jacob H. Sigmund,
East street and Perrysville road. Mrs. Gatharine Boschert, 74 Ohlo street, Allegheny.

19-Edward Carroll, Thirtieth street. Samuel R.
Duncan, 77 James street, Allegheny.
Bedward J. Sourin, at Baltimore. George Washington Evol.
Picker, Charliers township, Mrs.
Elinabeth Lauderbach, Stanwir street, aged Tyears.

24-Professor E. B. Elliott, Washington, D. C.
Almira T. Brown, Ward street, Oakiand.
Adam Moninger, 49 Page street.

25-Colonel A. H. Markland, Washington, D. C.
Almira T. Brown, Cari

JUNE.

JUNE.

1—General Henry W. Bierge, New York City.
Judge James B. Hays. Boise City. Idaho.
Captain Aaron K. Dunkel, Philadelphia. Wm.
K. Thompson, 2514 Smaillman street.

2—Benjamin McGinley, New York City. Mrs.
Flora A. Remingion. San Francisco. Robert
Newcomb, Seattle, W. T. Charles A. Boush, Meadville. Jacob Tanebaugh. McKeesport.
Mrs. Virginia Brown, 24 Colwell street.

3—Daniel Guenther, at No. 23 North avenue, aged 72 years. Samuel Irwin, 146 Frankstown avenue, East End.

4—Mrs. Mary Messamer, at Findlay. O., aged 191 years. George Anderson, Mcadville, Fa. ExGovernor William Johns, Louisville, Ky.

5—Peter Highberger. Manor station, Pa. Mrs.
Mary Maser, 18 High street. Allegheny.

5—John Behriuger, 348 Charlotte street. Rev. G.
Bochert, Boggs avenue, Mt. Washington,
James McCrea, Esq., Ohlo township. J. Harvey
McCansland, 491 Frankstown avenue,

7—Captain J. H. Harris. Louisville, Ky. Thomas
McElrath, New York City. Bissins Roach,
224 Sarab street.

8—Rev. James Freeman Charke, Boston. John
Allen Crittenden, Frankfort, Ky. Esra H.
Baker, Boston. Hugh H. Cunningham, 63
Sedgwick street, Allegheny. Charles Egiladorf, Southside.

9-Samuel B. Oldham, Dublin, Ireland. Sir Francis
Hastings Boyle, London. Mrs. Sarah Black,
McKeesport, Mrs. Catherine, Shellaby,
Allegheny, sged 83 years. Sally Holan, prims donna, London, Canada.

10—N. B. Raymond, Akron, O. Mrs. Annie Hamilton Fatterson, New York City.

11—Frederick Miller, Milwaukee, Wis. John
Manley, Wyth avenue, aged 79 years.

12—Judse Joseph Bagger. Louisville, Ky. S. H.
Corhurn, Akron. Mrs. James W. Forsythe, at Riley, Kan. Miss A. E. Hamilton, Ben
Venue, aged 79 years. William Wilson, B
Avery street, Allegheny.

13—James Thompson, Shaler township, aged 21 years. Mrs. Maria Kinstry, 403 Builer street.

14—Rufus C. Crampton, Jacksonville, Ht., William M. Bass, Belfast, Me. Henry Kamphems, at Vine street, Allegheny.

15—Cw. Anshutz, 29 Ressea street. Joseph Hunter, at Wilkinsburg, Aledon Brennen, 282 Sarah street, Southside.

15—Cw. Anshutz, 29 Ressea stree

convenes in the city. Democratic delegates leave for the State Convention at Harris-burg, Judge White decides that Pitsburg brewers and wholesale dealers cannot be 25-The employes of Painter's mill notified that reduction is necessary, but they decline to ac cept a cut of wages. Councils discuss the natural gas contract and the water famine. magnificent memorial window placed in the East Liberty Presbyterian Church by Mrs. Judge Mellon. granted more than one license. A residence on Locust street wrecked by natural gas.

The Knights Templars give a grand parade and reception at the Opera House. Brown & Co., of the Wayne Iron Works, issue an order reducing wages 10 per cent. D. W. Carroll & Co., of the Ft. Pitt Boller and Bridge Works, Co., of the Ft. Pitt Boller and Bridge Works, forced to assign. Councils have a heated dehate over the natural gas contract for the water works' pumping station.

The Knights Templar Conclave elects and installs new officers with much ceremony. Members of the County Democracy hang W. L. Scott in effig from the club window. Knights of Labor appoint a committee to confer with the management of the National Tube Works in regard to the reduction of wages demanded by the firm. The Department of Awards reconsiders the contract for two Amoskeag fire engines, and decides to again advertise for bids. by the adoption of the eight-hour law. John Cain placed on trial for the murder of George Boosbardt. 23-Annual commencement exercises of the Pitts-burg High School held at the Bijou Theater.

Rink. The Coroner's jury censures the Penu-sylvania road for the killing of Ray and Chid Bayne and Walter win the fight for delegates to the National Convention in the Allegheny Republican primaries. The employes of Singer, Nimick & Co. agree to accept a reduction.

B. H. Jones, bank defaulter from Stafford, Kan., arrested in Pittsburg. The License Court grants seven out of eight license applicants.

JUNE.

June 15.

The Scale Committee of the Amalgamated Association completes the schedule of wages. The Bar Association requests the judges to wear black robes. The Trades Assembly passes resolutions denouncing W. L. Scott and the Bichard N. Bay and Thomas Chidlow killed by the Braddock express at Roup station. The Sheet Iron Manufacturers' Association meets and discusses the provisions of the Mills bill.

Charies Clendinning celebrates his one hundredth birthday at his home in West Deer township. The Concordia Club gives its annual flay festival.

35—The Allegaery Natural Gas Committee ar-From Association rule and sign the Amaiga-mated scale. An equity sult filed in Common Pleas Court No. 1 in relation to the Ursuline Convent trouble. The Coroner's jury charges William Draper with the murder of George Whalen. Gilmore gives two grand concerts at the Riley Thester. ranges to take their protest against increased rates into court. The officials of the Philadelphia Company refuse to lower their big for the fuel supply of the water works pumping station. The Iron City Microsconial Society gives its sixth annual exhibit at the Ceutral the Bijou Theater.

1-Iron manufacturers continue positive in their refusal to sign the Amalgamated scale. Corner stone laid for the new school house of the St. Augustine German Catholic Church. Francis and Edward Murphy hold a monster temperance meeting at the Butler Street M. E. Church, Announced that Colonel Nevins will return home and answer all charges against him.

Carnegie's mills sign the Amalgamated Association scale, together with several smaller firms. Three hundred and seventy-six out of 449 pupils succeed in passing the examination for admission to the High School. Councils finally approve the decision of the Department of Awards in giving the contract for water works fuel to the Philadelphia Company. The grand jury decides to reopen the case of the Police Bureau against the Homer Redpath for policy writing. An investigation of charges of cruelty made against the Home for the Friendless shows them to be groundless.

Two more firms sign the Amalgamated scale, making 15 in all. Seventy-three scholars successfully pass the examination for admission into the Aliegheny High school, and nearly as many more are decided to be entitled to another trial. The Master Paluters' Association elects delegates to the National convention at Christmati. Richard Splane convicted of renting property for immoral purposes. Judge Hawkins invaliantes the will of Mrs. Mary Hazlett, because of undue influence.

Non-union men secured to operate Singer, Nimick & Co. 's West End Mills, and organized labor not to be recognized in the future. Pittsburg cilizens observe the glorious Fourth in an appropriate manner. D. A. & K. of L.; gives a monster picnic at Silver Lake Grove for the benefit of the Armstrong memorial fund. The Law and Order Society Issues a lengthy address decilining to stop prosscution of Sanday milk shake dealers.

The County Commissioners and the Prison Board decide to assist the District Attorney in convicting illegal liquor sellers. Singer, Nimick & Co. succeed in partially operating their Court grants seven out of eight ficense applicants.

M-Rev, Sam Small lectures to a crowded house in Liberty Hall, East End, An incendiary fire discovered on the corner of Center avenue and Arthur street. John Hartenberg shoots and severely wounds William Myers at No. 1224

Penn svenue.

Miners meet in convention and resolve to resist a reduction of wages. The Shady avenue bridge pronounced unsafe by reason of the manner in which the traction conduit was constructed. Select Council discusses the question of grade crossings and the accidents resulting therefrom. The Court hands down an opinion refusing all rehearings in license cases.

cases.

Michael Schowider kills Mra. Bridget Mullen, on Bedford avenue. Patrick Mullerron fatally wounds George Martin with a pick. Pennsylvania rallroad officials in the city on their annual tour of inspection. The various Republican conventions meet, elect Magee. Filin, Bayne and Walter as National Convention delegates and nominate legislative tickets. K. of L. salesmen refuse to work the evenings before legal holidays. Exposition plans accepted. corial Day celebrated in a fitting manner in the various sections of the city. George Martin dies from the effects of his wounds. The Reformed Presbyterian Synod expresses its wish for a union with the other branches of &1-The Scale Committee of the Amalgamated Asand coate committee of the Amargamated Association meets to perfect a sehedule for the ensuing year. The R. P. Synod decides that it is not yet ready to combine with the United Presbyterians. The Randail Club completes arrangements to attend the St. Louis Convention. Twenty-fourth district Republican conferees fall to agree on a nomination. convicting illegal liquor sellers. Singer, Nim JUNE.

2—The employes of the National Tube Worksagree to a reduction of 7% to 10 per cent in wages. Clerk Bothweil presents a series of charges against Mayor Pearson to the Allegheny Police Committee. The Iwenty-fourth district Republican Congressional Conference again falls to nominate a candidate. The R. P. Synod declares against church fairs. Allegheny Natural Gas Committee protests that the gas companies violated contracts in raising the rates. Western glass factories decide to close June 15.

Board decide to assist the Printer Annal Convicting illegal liquor sellers. Sincer, Nincick & Co. succeed in partially operating their works. Two chair factories, a wagon works and two dwellings in the rear of Madison avenue. Allegheny, destroyed by fire. A new supply of stone for the Federal building arrives. H. O. Price and partners piaced on trial before Judge Collier on a charge of pool selling. Moorhead Bros. & Co. sign the Amalgamated scale.

Beliers burst in the tannery of A. J. Groetzinger, Allegheny, wreeking the buildings, killing the engineer, William Wetzel, and fatally injuring others. Three more firms sign the Amalgamated scale. Judge Collier decides against the pool sellers, and Chief Brown issues an order for the place to close. J. T. McCorey writes an open letter attacking Francis Murphy. Knights of Labor at Singer's mill remain firm.

-The Pittsburg Cycle and Athletic Club opens its new park with appropriate amusements.

the Monongaheia, causing great destruction to property. Police placed on guard at Singer's mill. The Allegheny Board of School Control consider the subject of Industrial education.— The Monongaheia continues to create great heia House.

12—The Monongahela flood begins to subside. Orangemen celebrate their day. Rev. Alexander Jackson called to the largest Presbyterian church in Canada. The Wage Committee of the window glass workers and manufacturers hold a conference. Aliegheny Turners dedicate Teutonis Hall. The Don Cameron Glub holds a lively session.

13—Peter Mack dies at No. 75 Clark street, and Dr. J. Guy McCandless delares it is a case of sporadic Asiatic cholera. A number of Pittsburg and Aliegheny grocers sued for selling oleomargerine. The Lake Erie read refuses to issue passes to its employes. John frwin dangeronsly wounds his cousin, Barney Irwin, at 130 South avenue, Aliegheny. Five more important from firms sign the Amalgamated scale and prepare to resume operations.

14—The Amalgamated Association and the National Tube Works arrange wages for the ensuing year. Dressed beef rates cut once more.

15—Natural gas discovered at a depth of 50 feet on East street, Aliegheny. Many ministers uphold the Law and Order Society in their pulpits and denounce the Murphys. New M. E. Church at Emsworth dedicated with appropriate ceremonies.

16—Five more firms sign the Amalgamated scale. Chief Brown furnishes Special Agent McCall with a large list of illegal liquor seliers. Com-

ties. 22-The Brotherhood of Loconotive Engineers

AUGUST.

1—The largest of the three great cables for the Fifth avenue traction road arrives. Select Council postpones action on the Duquesne Water Company ordinance. Mrs. Mary Ferree celebrates her 90th birthday at Coraopolis. Allegheny procers picnic at Ross Grove, Several dwelling houses on Carson street, Southside, badly burned, the fire originating from a imp explosion at No. 50s. Spang, Chaifant & Co. sign the Amalgamated scale. Allegheny citizens petition Councils for the construction of boulevards around the parks.

2—May Patton kills Charles DeKnight and herself at the Metropolitan Hotel. Frederick Brandes, of No. 185 Federal street, Allegheny, suicides rather than be sentenced for illegal ilquor selling. The remains of Bartley Campbell laid to rest in St. Mary's Cemetery. Herbert E. Pennypacker, a well-known oil operreleased from the Ravenna jail, where he was charged with complicity in the Hulligan murder. The Committee on Surveys consider the cutting of the humo. The corner-stone of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church, at Tarentum, laid with appropriate ceremonies. Pittsburg public buildings draped because of the death of General Sheridan. General Sheridan.

Reese, Lindsay & Co. awarded the contract for the mammoth Westinghouse Air Brake Works at Wilmerding stations. The filmt glass workers and manufacturers adjust the wage scale satisfactorily. The Centennial Celebration Committee holds an important meeting.

Nearly 10,000 people attend the picnic of the Pittsburg Betail Merchants' Protective Association at Ross grove. Pavers and rammers on the traction road strike against non-union men.

dail Club makes some important changes in its constitution, 17—The City Assessors make a radical change in the mode of assessing the Schenley and Denny estates.
18—The County Democracy gives a big picnic at Exposition Park, speeches being made by Senator Vance and Congressmen McMillin, Maish and Tarsney. Secretary Dillion and three other prominent members of the American Flint Glass Workers' Union arrested on a charge of conspiracy, preferred by H. C. Fry, of the Rochester Fumbler Works. George W. Morris, General Manager of the A. French Spring Company, claims the water supply was insufficient at the fire at the spring works.
19—George Martin, a Law and Order detective, arcested on a serious charge. Frank Waltzer stabs August Blettner at a social gathering in Bloomfield, with probably fatal results. The County Democracy entertains its distinguished guests and shows them the sights of the city Begeorge Martin, a Law and Order detective, arreaded on a serious charge. Frank Waitzer stabs August Blettner at a social gathering in Bloomfeid, with probably fatal results. The County Democracy entertains its distinguished guests and shows them the sights of the city.

20. Nearly 5,000 colored people celebrate Emancipation Day at Hulton Grove.

21. Continued heavy rains cause floods and consequent damage to property. The Allegheny County Medical Society discusses the subject of pure and wholesome milk.

22. The rivers recede rapidly, after doing great damage, railroad travel being greatly delayed and impeded by washouts. Treasurer Controller Furtham decides that the bank is liable in the Colonel Nevin's case. The Cathedral Sanday School gives a celebration at Central Turner Hall.

23. The fishadil Club opens its new building, at No. 73 Sixth avenue, with feasting and merriment. The Survivors' Association of the One-Hundred and Third Regiment, P. V., holds a successful reunion at Ross Grove. An equity suit field in Common Pleas Court No. 1 to test the right of a natural gas company to remove its pipes and break connections with any party to whom it has contracted to supply fuel.

24. Master Workman George Dovey placed on trial before the court of L. A. 163, K. of L. The Exposition Society decides to readvertise for bids for the superstructure.

25. J. M. Nollad, of Shadyside, stempts suicide under sensational circumstances. The Democrats hold their primaries to elect delegates to the County and Legislative Conventions. Allegheny Councils of the 3ft. U. U. A. M. decide to place an American flag on every school house in the city.

26. Peev. Alexander Jackson resigns from his Southside church to accept the pastorate of the Knox Prestyterian Church, Gait, Untario. Bishop Phelan delivers an address at the laying of the corner-stone for the Home of the Angel in Allegheny.

27. A Mrs. Simmons attempts to commit suicide by jumping over the Sixth street bridge. Judges Stowe hears the premension of the Unsuline Convent

SEPTEMBER. SEPTEMBER.

1-H. C. Frick voluntarily advances the wages of his employes 5 per cent. The Junior Order of United American Mechanics holds a grand tristate Treunion at Exposition Park. A malignant type of scarlet fever makes its appearance on the hill in the vicinity of Pasture street. Samuel and David Nibloch arrested for extensive robberies from Liberty street merchants.

2-The Eighth Street Hebrew Temple rededicated with much ceremony. The magnificent new a mammoth picnic at Silver Lake grove. The Thirty-ninth Street Presbyterian Church splits, a majority of the members voting against a call to Rev. D. Jones of Cincinnati.

Meat inspector McCutcheon makes an official report of his investigation of the condition of the dressed heef industry at Chicago. Montour Presbyterians celebrate the centennial of the "Old Red Church." Western window glass manufacturers decide to resume operations October 1.

Four Pitusburg physicians volunteer to go to Florida to combat the yellow fever accourge. Ground broken for the construction of a big stone depot for the Pittsburg and Western road. The Executive Committee of the National Reform Association meets at the Y. M. C. A. building. Charles Deitrich shoots his wife in a marital quarrel.

The Window Glass Workers' Association decides to put speakers on the stump to talk for cides to put speakers on the stump to talk for protection. City Attorney Moreland gives his official opinion on the diseased dressed-beef question, and proposes a State quarantine. The German-American Technical Association holds it fourth annual convention in the German-American Technical Convention in the German-American Technical Association holds it fourth annual convention in the German-American Technical Convention in the German-American Technical Convention in the German-Convention in man Library rooms. A natural gas fire burns the Keystone Rolling Mill to the extent of Phil Armour, the Chicago beef king, stops in the city and brands the stories of diseased dressed beef being sent out by him as false. Rev. father rollard paralyzed while celebrating mass at St. Mary's Church in Lawrence-ville. Six Protestant ministers and Bishop Phelan give their views on the First ward school controversy. Fire breaks out at No. 37 Fifth avenue, and does damage to the amount of $50.000.

of $50,000.

17—The Pittsburg Steel Casting Company cast a stem-post for the cruiser Maine weighing it tons. Councils decide to participate in the Centennial parade. Andrew Luchn and George Hantz fatally injured by the breaking of a ladder at the No. 4 engine house, Fifth avenue. avenue. An indignation meeting at Lafayette Hall de-

An indignation meeting at Lafayette Hall denounces parochial schools. The Allegheny Market Committee has a lively discussion over the hour for closing that building, but 10 o'clock is finally adopted. The Centennial Committee arranges for the pyrotechnic display of the celebration.

Judge White arraigns constables for neglecting to report illegal liquor seliers. Allegheny Councils and city officers plenie at Forest Grove. The Western Theological Seminary opens its school year.

The Allegheny Gas Committee receives bids from the various electric light companies for the illumination of the city by that means. Tony Newell's remains taid to rest with appropriate ceremonies. Congruity Church celebrates its centennial anniversary. The General Committee of the Labor Division of the Centennial parade is assured that 20,000 men will be in line. David L. Mitchell mysteriously shot while driving in a buggy on Penn avenue.

Pittsburg citizens commence the work of ac-eral Committee of the Labor Division of the Contennial parade is assured that 20, (00 men will be in line. David L. Mitchell mysteriously shot while driving in a buggy on Penn avenue.

21—Pittaburg citizens commence the work of active preparation for the great Centennial celebration, elaborate decorations being arranged on every side. Business men agree to endow the U. P. Seminary.

22—Every detail of the Centennial arrangements completed, and the general orders issued for the immense parades. Elimer Washburn, Superintendent of the Union stockyards at Chicago, comes to Pittaburg to deny the reports of diseased cattle being slaughtered there. The Y. M. C. A. holds a field day of athletic sports at their grounds. The Coroner's Jury brings in a verdict of guilty in the David L. Mitchell case.

22—Visitors commence to throng into Pittaburg to witness the great celebration, Ex-President Hayes and wite being among the arrivals. The new St. Philomena Seminary consecrated. Captain Wishart inaugurates a war against dealers in fash; literature, addresses being made by Judge Stowe, Commissioner Mercer and K. B. Hayes. The police and firemen give a fine exhibition parade. Fifteen hundred trained school children join in one vast, triumphal chorus. The Monongabela illuminated at night. Braddock workmen make money under the sliding scale.

22—Second day of the mammoth celebration. More than 20,000 persons in line in the industrial and civic parade, which is witnessed by immense crowds who come from 100 miles around, 120,000 people being brought into the city on the various railroads. Ithe Allecheny river illuminated at night with fireworks and natural gas fountains. A number of slight accidents occar in the great Jam.

23—The great Centennial celebration concluded, An imposing military parade of millita and G. A. R. week nold a campaign opened in the East End with a parade and speeches. Common and banquet. The Union Veteran Legion holds an enthusiastic meeting at the Grand Central Rink. Milton Weston released.

23—Centennial

A syndicate of capitalists represented by George B. Hill secures control of the Pittaburg, Allegheny and Manchester street car line. Joseph Evans found guilty of murder in the second degree. The Republicans of Mt. Oliver ratify the election of Harrison and Morton.

Many a Home, and Strikes

Morton.

Governor Beaver and Colonel F. W. Parker address a teachers' institute at the First Presbyterian Church. A broken valve causes a shortage of natural gas, and necessitates the closing of many public schools until the break is repaired. The Allegheny special council committee estimates that it will cost $51,200.25 to arrange for the elevation of the rairoad tracks through the city.

24—The Americus Club decides to attend the inauguration of Harrison and Morton. The Department of Awards changes the form of the bids for the electric lighting contract.

25—Nearly 4,000 people attend the Murphy testimonial meeting at the Bijon Theater. Window glass workers consider the project of establishing a bank. New cable cars for the Peun avenue line arrive. Produce dealers form an organization to prosecute the sellers of oléomargarine.

DECEMBER.

1-Judge Agnew reads a history of the Allegheny county Bar at a special meeting of the Bar Association. Samuel Keller held in $1.000 bail for conspiracy to defraud. John Snowden Hoimes found dead at Wurtemburg, and is believed to have been killed and robbed.

2-New Methodist Protestant Church at Knoxville dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. The Salvation Army celebrates the arrival of Marshal Bailington Booth. Cochran Ramsey accidentally killed at Duff station.

3-The Prebyterian Sabbath School Institute assembles at the First Presbyterian Church. Milton Weston comes to the city to work for the pardon of Absalom Bowser. Neilie Campbell arrested on a charge of stealing $1,800 from Hugh Conroy.

4-John Sweitzer killed and five others badly burned by molten metal at Shoenberger's mill. An immense audience attends the fir 2 of a series of concerts for the benefit of West Penn Hospital at Old City Hall. The Pittsburg Presbytery meets at the First Presbyterian Church and arranges for a number of important changes.

5-The news of the failing of the cast steel gun under the test at Annapolis causes great regret in the city. The majority of the Philadelphia Company shares are voted in favor of the Issue of bonds to the amount of 2, 500, 600. The court enjoins the Department of Awards from contracting for Amoskeag engines at prices largely in excess of those asked for other similar machines. The Foster Evening of the West Penn Hospital benefit very successful. DECEMBER.

of the West Penn Hospital benefit very successful.

The Department of Awards opens the bids for illuminating the city, and the electric light propositions are found to be very low in comparison with other methods. The Wilkinsburg Company strikes natural gas at s depth of 1.740 feet. The farewell entertainment of the West Penn Hospital benefit well attended. Druggiats hold a meeting at Pharmacy Hall, to take action regarding the modification of the Sunday Blue laws.

The phonograph and graphophone placed on exhibition at the office of Whitney & Stephenson. exhibition at the office of Whitney & Stephenson.

9-Prominent Chinamen arrive to organize a branch of Chinese Masons in the city. James Campbell announces himself as in favor of a labor bank. Mayor Pearson, of Allegheny, said to be a candidate for County Controller. John Harper arrested, charged with an extensive series of robberies in Allegheny. Father Tobin bids farewell to the congregation of the St. James Catholic Church.

-The Monongahela Navigation Company files its answer in the United States District Court, protesting against the condemnation of lock No. 7. The Board of Education has a warm contest over the revision of the salaries of the High School faculty. The White Rose and White Ribbon elements have a spirited controversy at the meeting of the Allegheny County W. C. T. U. at Natrona.

-Thomas Maxwell, the plaintiff in the suit decides that woman can fill the office of deason.

The Western Iron Manufacturers' Association meets and decides that wages must be reduced. The Pittsburg Blocase of the Episcopal Church meets at St. Andrew's Church. Mrs. Richard Dunn, of Wylle avenue, beaten and drugsed byla burglar.

The County Democracy and Randall Club celebrate the nomination of Cleveland and Thurman. The iron manufacturers' scale makes a reduction of from 16 to 50 per cent in wages. Judge Agnew talks on the tariff to the Young Men's Bepublican Tariff Club. The foundation stone of the Episcopal Guild House on the Southside laid with much ceremony. Bishop Whitehead presented with $1,00° by the Pittsburg diocese. The W. J. Hammond property sold to the Baltimore and Ohio to be used as a valicoad yard.

Freyvogie and McClure have a hearing before Alderman Cassidy on a charge of getting $13,-600 from Peter Quian through gambling. The cornefistone of the memorial building of the Pennsylvania Female College laid. Controller Speer notified the County Commissioners that ex-Sheriff Gray's accounts would not balance, owing to a deficiency of $15,682 30. Battery B holds its annual reunion.

The new Court House building finished. The ninth annual reunion of the Amalgamated Association attended by 18,000 people. George M. Von Bonnhorst elected Chairman of the Republican County Committee. Controller Speer has Alderman O'Brien and Constable Metzgar, of the Twelfth ward, arrested on a charge of perjury and extortion. The Randall Club returns from the St. Louis convention, and is given a reception. River men draft a protest to present to the Senate against the construction of a gas tank at the Pittsburg Fuel Gas Works, on South First street, seriously and is given a reception. River men draft a protest to present to the Senate against the construction of a dam on the lower Ohio. An explosion of a gas tank at the Pittsburr Fuel Gas Works, on South First street, seriously injuries two men.

10—Children's Day observed in the various Methodist and Presbyterian Churches. Brewers as's for shorter hours and the employment of union men.

11—The Amalgamated Association convention completes its scale of wages. Councils ask the Board of Awards to examine the different fire engines before awarding the contract. The Prohibition County Convention meets and nominates a Legislative ticket. The Bar Association gives a picnic at Idlevild.

23—Twenty-feurth district Congressional conferces again meet but fail to agree on a candidate. The Carbon Iron Company fits up the Fort Pitt works to make structural steel. Railroad rates to Chicago cut down to 50. Bishop Bowman Institute holds its annual commencement. Bishop Bowman Institute holds its annual commencement

The Amigramated scale presented to the manufacturers. John F. Cox withdraws from the Twenty-fourth district Congressional contest. John Schmitt attempts suicide in the Allegheny lockup. The feast of St. Anthony celebrated with great ceremony on Troy Hill, Allegheny. The water works' fuel contract let to the Philadelphis Company for $4,600.

Republican clubs and politicians leave for the Chicago Convention. Iron masters' and workers' committees discuss the wage scale, but fail to reach an agreement. McClure and Freyvogle give ball for court. Acheson comes within two votes of being nominated for Congress in the Twenty-fourth district. Sults against Sonday trains entered before Alderman Intem, of Allegheny.

The Twenty-fourth District Conference again fails to make a Congressional nomination, but elects J. P. Moore as national delegate. The Iron masters' committee Insists on a big reduction in wages. Councils authorize the building of two new police stations. The Centennial Committee announces its plans for an industrial parade.

The Amaigamated Association announces that it prefers a shut-down for three months to a reduction in wages. The Trades Assembly decides to participate in the centennial celebration. Special agent O'Shea resigns from the Builders' League. Foundry and stables on Grant street, Allegheny, burn with a loss of $1,000, and 20 mules and horses perish. James Gathwood's machine shop damaged by fire to the amount of $16,000.

A boating party marrowly escapes drowning in the Allegheny river. The Catholic chapel in St. Mars's Cemetery dedicated.

A scarcity of water causes Chief Brown to issue an order stopping the use of street hose. The Americas and Tariff clubs leave for the Chicago conventions. Patrick Boyle, of Allegheny, run over and killed by a brewery wagoon. The Amalgamated Association. The Clitzens Fraction Company awards the contract for embedies and briting caused in some sections of the city. Josephine Marck, of 28 Sycamore street, Al

Judge Meilon.

-Pittsburg Republicans ratify the nomination of Harrison and Morton with speeches, parades and red fire. Thomas Mitchell arrested for complicity in the murder of George Whalen.

-Miss Frances Willard talks prohibition in the East End Tabernacle. Singer, Nimick & Co.
discharge all of their striking employes. Postmaster Larkin applies to the Department for additional letter carriers, rendered necessary

Allegheny school heid at the Bijou Theater.
Allegheny scholars graduate at the Opera House. The ladies of the East End Calvary
Church establish a permanent cooking school.
29—Iron manufacturers and workers fail to agree on a scale of wages. The jubilee of the Allegheny schools postponed on account of rain.
30—Oliver Bros. All'hillips break from the Western

2-Carnegie's mills sign the Amalgamated Asso-

7—The Pitisburg Cycle and Athletic Club opens its new park with appropriate amusements. The Chartiers Gas Company passes a dividend.

8-Fred G. Weliner shoots himself through the the head at 178 Third avenue. Francis and Edward Murphy hold a meeting at the Opera House, and criticize the line of conduct pursued by the Law and Order Society.

9-H. W. Weir appointed Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho. I he Coroner's jury finds that the Groetringer boilers were defective, and that wet tan bark should not have been used in conjunction with satural gas. The Amalgamated and K. of L. strikers at Singer's mill hold a joint meeting and resolve to stand firm.

9-A July flood suddenly makes its appearance on the Monongahela, causing great destruction to House.

4-The Board of Assessors complete their work of assessing the business tax. Peter E. Quinn of assessing the business tax. Peter E. Quinn arrested for emberzling $15.00, which he lost in gambling houses. N. T. A. 215, K. of L., composed of Iron and steel workers, meets to arrange for a scale of wages. The employee of the Pennsylvania Tube Works refuse to accept a reduction. The grand jury finds indictments against a number of persons for seiling without a license.

The thirteenth annual convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers meets at Turner Hall, The R. P. Synod decides that woman can fill the office of deacon.

The Western Iron Manufacturers' Association meets and decides that wages must be reduced. 11—The Monongahela continues to create great havoe among the coal fleets and property along the banks. See & Laughlins sign the Amaigamated scde. Both sides confident of victory in the Singer strike. The Thiadelphia Company brings in a new roarer at Canonsburg. The National Association of Spring Manufacturers meets at the Monongahela House.

12—The Monongahela flood begins to subside. Orangemen celebrate their day. Rev. Alexander Church at Emsworth dedicated with appropriate ceremonies.

16—Five more firms sign the Amalgamated scale. Chief Brown furnishes Special Agent McCali with a large list of illegal liquor seliers. Committees from the Filint Glass Workers' Union and the Manufacturers' Association meet to adjust the wage scale. Emil Minuth arraigned in court for the murder of Peter Voelker. G. Rosenthair's clothing store on Wylle avenue robbed and fired.

17—Two more signatures to the scale received by the Amalgamated Association. Corner stone of the St. George Episcopal Church at Irwin laid with much ceremony. The case of Minuth, the alleged murderer of Peter Voelker, goes to the jury.

18—The Western Iron Association meets, absolving the manufacturers from all pledges, and Zug & Co. and the Kensington Iron Works immediately sign the scale. The hearing in the equity sult, of C. G. Dixon & Co. against McClure & Freyvogie commenced before a master, and Peter Quinn tells how he lost $13,000 in gambling. J. Warren Ray, of Green county, nominated for Congress by the Twenty-lifth District Convention on the 20th ballot. A company organized to put a new bridge across the Allegbeny river frem Arch aremue to Fifth street.

18—Claus Spreckles experiments on refining sugar in Pittsburg. The ordinance authorizing the pinns of the Duquesne Water Company passes Common Councul. Max Roger arrested for the nurder of August Wetzel on June 12, 1887. The Finance Committee arrange to secure the funds necessary for the county centennial celebration.

20—Robert D Layton elected as a delegate to the K. of L. General Assembly, and a warm fight made for the other places. Seven Pittsburg steamboat men lose their I-res by the bursting of a steam pipe of the towboat Courror. The Faraday Carbon Company fless a suit against the Philadelphia Gas Company for extortion, and secures a preliminary injunction.

20—Robert D Layton elected as a delegate to the K. of L. General Assembly, and a warm fight made for the other places. Seven Pittsburg steamboat men lose their pleads guilty to manslaughter. Agent Dean, of the Anti-Cruelty Society, threatens to proscute stores which do not provide seats for their lady clerks, according to law, —Max Roger held for Court for the murder of Angast Weizel. Typhold fever epidemic on Tweifth ward hillsufe. Two more firms sign the Amalgamated scale.

AUGUST.

bell laid to rest in St. Mary's Cemetery. Herbert E. Pennybacker, a well-known oil operator, arrested for extensive forgeries in oil leases.

3-The first attempt to move the big cable from the Shadyside depot results in complete failure. J. Painter & Sons sign the Amalgamated scale, and the lockout is practically ended.

4-Captain Clark's attorneys decide to take the case of illegal liquor seiling against him to the United States Supreme Court. John Mackin and Thomas McNally badly injured by a falling building on Mary street. Southside.

5-St. Mary's Chappel, at Sharpsburg, dedicated.
Samuel Hamilton returns from Alaska, and tells some interesting facts concerning that country.

6-Jimmy Robinson arrives in the city after being on the traction road strike against non-union men.

Thomas Murray fatally wounds Anthony Sheridan. Messrs. Hippley & Hopf accidentally strike a vein of natural gas in the center of Allegheny at a depth of 420 feet. John Waish sues the Pennsylvanis Railroad Company for $50,000 damages for injuries received. The association of the One Hundred and Thirty-fourth Regiment, P. V., holds its fifth reunion at Forest Grove.

Samuel Miller severely injures Frank Lawler, a Pittsburg freman, at a picnic at idlewild. Memorial services held at the South Nineteenth Street Habtist Church in honor of General Street Baptist Church in honor of General Sheridan.

Rabbi Sivitz, the new chief rabbi, delivers his first sermen in the city. G. A. R. men gave a big sham battle exhibition at Maysville. James McDermitt, a Southside merchant, charged big sham battle exhibition at Maysville. James McDermitt, a Southside merchaut, charged with forgery.

12—A surgical outfit added to the equipment of the Police Department. The Western Union moves into its new quarters.

13—The Congressional lumigration Investigating Committee sends word to Chief Elliot that they will visit Pittsburg.

14—The Coroner's Jury holds Thomas Murray for the murder of Anthony Sheridan. John Donahue, who claimed to be acting as an agent for Spencer & Liddell, is sentenced to a $500 fine and three months in the workhouse by Judge Siagle, for illegal liquor seiling.

15—Nearly 9,000 people attend the annual barbecue and picnic of the Butchers' Association at Ross Grove. The A. French Spring Works damaged by fire to the extent of $60,000. The English Beer Trust makes a proposition to a Pittsburg brewery firm.

15—Many milis and factories compelled to shut down because of the intense heat. The Randall Club makes some important changes in its constitution.

17—The City Assessors make a radical change in cleate J. (Moore as national edegate, "I Moore as maintain delegate, "I Moore as maintain delegate, "The Brotherhood of Loco.netive Engineers function in wages. Councils authorize the building of two new police stations. The Carlo of the Councils and the station of the Carlo of Small talks straight prohibition at Lafayette Hall. The Veterans' Union declares for per diem pensions. Drs. Wood and Lowe have a hearing before Alderman Cassidy on a charge of practicing medicine without a diploma, and are held for court.

-The Prohibition party element in the W. C. T. U. State Convention defeated, and Mrs. Swift re-elected President. The Shadyside Presbyterian Church accepts the resignation of Rev. J. M. Richmond, after a stormy discussion. Allegheny Councils fight on the electric light contract, and are unable to come to an agreement.

Wilkinsburg. St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church celebrates its semi-centennial. Officers raid a poker room at the corner of Forbes and Boyd streets.

James Campbell, President of the American Window Glass Workers' Associatian, returns from Europe. The Presbyierian Ministerial Association denounces the establishment of a parochial school in the First ward public school building. Councils hold their first meeting after their annual summer vacation. The Pitisburg Tennis Club holds a tournament at its grounds in Brushton. John Mulherron arraigned before Judge Ewing for the murder of George Martin. Eccles Robinson resigns from his position as Worthy Foreman of D. A. Z. K. of L., in order that he may be free to make political speeches. The grand Jury finds an indictment against Thomas Murray for the murder of Anthony Sheridan.

The Allegheny County Woman's Christian Temperance Union has a lively discussion over an invitation sent to Mrs. J. Ellen Foster to be present at the State Convention, and Mrs. H. C. Campbell is elected County President. Barbara Frantz commits suicide by taking Faris green at her home in Oakland. Ex-Master Workman George C. Dovey acquitted of the charges made against him. The corner stone of the Fifth Avenne Masonic Temple laid with solemn ceremony. The Evangelical Lutheran Synod closes a successful session. Knights and Ladies of Honor celebrate the eleventh anniversary of the order at the Grand Central Rink.

2-John Bristol robbed by highwaymen on the Fort Wayne bridge. Mrs. Elizabeth Curry. contract, and are unable to come to an agreement.

The W. C. T. U. State Convention adjourns, after a warm contest upon political topics. Dilworth, Porter & Co. announce that they will attempt to start their mill with non-union men. The Jr. O. U. A. M. presents American flags to the Southside schools.

The Farmers and Mechanics' Bank, of the Southside, falls. Bookkeepers hold a meeting and perfect an organization. The Assessors of the various wards report the number of IaXables under their jurisdiction. Master Workman Schilling, of Chicago, visits the city to consider the advisability of ordering a strike of the grip men on the cable road. Pittsburg Republican clubs give a mammoth torchlight parade in the central portion of the city.

St. Mary's Cemetery, McKeesport, dedicated with appropriate ceremonies. Toerge brothers hauled over the coals by the Pittsburg Musical Union.

Depositors of the defunct Farmers and Mechanics' Bank hold a meeting, and President Sorg promises that all claims shall be paid in full. Exposition Society directors return from an inspection of the Cincinnati Exposition. Chef Brown suspends Ajax Jones for being implicated in a row during a Republican Parade. Central Rink.

John Bristol robbed by highwaymen on the Fort Wayne bridge. Mrs. Elizabeth Curry, an alleged sorceres, held for court for causing the suicide of Lena Obermeyer. The East End Merchants' Protective Association gives a mammoth picnic at Silver Lake grove. The Thirty, sight Street Wassbetzelin. Church parade.

Judges White and Magee handsdown lengthy opinions, granting an injunction against an increase of natural gas rates by the Allegheny Heating Company, until the matter shall be determined by the Supreme Court and a master's decision. Dilworth, Porter & Co., resume operations with possessions.

increase of natural gas rates by the Altegenery Heating Company, until the matter shall be determined by the Supreme Court and a master's decision. Dilworth, Porter & Co., resume operations with non-union men.

Citizens of the Twenty-ninth ward assemble at the Bedford school and protest against the proposed hump out. D. A. Stewart chosen as Chairman of the Carnegie firm, in place of Henry Phipps, Jr., resigned. The Freehold Bank files its bond as a city depository. Rev. Boyd Vincent notified of his election as Bishop of the Southern Diocese of Ohio.

S-Catholic citizens gather at St. Paul's Cathedral and make a vigorous protest against the cutting of the hump. A gang of Southside shoplifters arrested. The Butchers' Association indorses Inspector McCutcheon's report on diseased Chicago dreased beef. Pittsburg Builders' Exchange considers the advisability of erecting a building for their use.

The Cheinnati express on the B. & O. wrecked at Little Washington, two persons being killed and many injured, including several persons from Pittsburg. The Allegheny Citizens' Gas Committee holds a meeting to outline future work in the fuel suit against the Altegheny Heating Company. The Don Cameron Club passes resolutions denouncing Chief Brown, for the suspension of Ajax Jones.

3-The Democrats parade in Pittsburg 2,000 strong, while 4,000 Republicans march through the streets of Allegheny. The new apportionment on the basis of the number of taxables reduces the membership of Common Council one member. Thomas Burke sentenced to the pentitentary seven years, for the manslaughter of John Spiegle.

3-Lawrenceville citizens cut down obnoxious telephone poles. St. Mary Magdalen's new Catholic Church, at Homestead, dedicated with impressive eeremoules. Oakland Methodist Episcopal Church dedicated.

-A broken gas main near the wells causes a great shortage in the city and many mills are forced to suspend operations. The Ursuline Academy celebrates St. Ursula's Day.

-The Department of Awards again lets the contract for two Amosk are a part.

-Republicans give a mammoth parade on the Southside and the Democrats make a demonstration in Allegheny. The Republican County Committee has a ferce fight over the introduction of new rules.

The cable road gripmen prepare a scale of wages. Toerge brothers expelled from the Musical Mutual Protective Union.

Democratic leaders quarrel over the appointment of United States deputy marshals. Common Council postpones the consideration of the hump ordinance. Frank Walzer arraigned before Judge £wing for the murder of August Blettner.

before Judge Ewing for the murder of August Biettner.

Bietner

1—The Monongahela Water Company buys out the Manufacturers' Water Company and increases its capital stock. Charles McNamy, of Webster avenue, shoots himself through the brain and dies instantly. The explosion of a furnace at Zug's mill kills one man and injures two others. The Coroner's jury holds M. Wilson for manslaughter, on the ground that his negligence caused the fire-scape accident at the Monongahela House. Frank Walzer convicted of murder in the second degree.

that his negigence caused the fire-scape accident at the Monongahela House. Frank Walzer convicted of murder in the second degree.

Harry Darlington leases the Eiba Iron and Bolt Works. The Supreme Court decides the Lake Erie Hailroad case in favor of the Vanderbilts and against the trustees.

United States Marshal Miller appoints a long list of deputies for election day. Denver parties order $5.000 worth of iron, nalls and rails from a Pittsburg firm. The Bar Association discusses the draft of an act regulating the jury commissioner system.

The First Evangelical Lutheran Church, on Grant street, dedicated, Corner stone of the St. Peter's German Lutheran Church laid at the corner of Collins avenue and Station street, East Liberty, with appropriate ceremonies. Thomas Cain stabs his wife at the notorious "Eagle's Nest," with probably fatal results.

The Pittsburg Baptist Ministers' Conference expels Rev. F. R. Scully from its membership. An explosion of nitro-giveerine at Shannopin shakes the earth for miles around, and an unknown man is believed to be killed. Constable William Billings, of Allegheny, arrested on a charge of extorting $10 from keepers of disorderly houses. Considerable money wagered on the result of the general election, The Americus Club returns from New York.

Great interest taken in the general election, and immense crowds gather to hear the returns. The local Republican ticket uniformity successful in Allegheny county. The Allegheny natural gas suit taken into the Supreme Court.

Three prominent Allegheny policemen arrested for indulging in a disgraceful row. Cable road officials deny that there is any consolidation scheme on foot.

The Iron City Engineering Society organized at the East End Hotel. The Pupils of Heman's Institute hold a semi-centennial celebration. The committee appointed to oppose the hump cut ordinance arranges plans of action.

A large number of the taxpayers of the Seventh, Eighth and Eleventh wards assemble